VII. Policy

The UIPA board takes ultimate responsibility for governance of the entity by appointing an executive staff, providing board policy guidance, authorizing the use of resources, setting goals and expectations, and monitoring results. The board recognizes that their role is to be more than just a ceremonial body. They have the responsibility to lead and hold staff accountable for results. Both the board and executive director hold everyone accountable to high standards of performance.

VIII. Individual Board Member Duties

- Be informed about UIPA's vision, mission, project areas, strategic plan, and policies.
 - Oversee progress on the strategic plan priorities and achievements.
 - Approve board policies including pursuant to UCA 11-58-205, a procurement policy.
 - Adhere to the Code of Conduct policy.
 - Pursuant to UCA 11-58-5, may adopt project areas, project area amendments, and project area budgets.
 - Pursuant to UCA 11-5-8-603, may approve business recruitment incentives.
 - Pursuant to UCA 11-58-7, may adopt infrastructure loans resolutions.
- Pursuant to UCA 11-58-305, hire and oversee the executive director.
- Attend board and assigned committee meetings.
 - Review board meeting agenda and supporting materials prior to meetings.

BP-14 Board Governance

- Serve on committees or advisory councils.
- Assist the board in carrying out its fiduciary responsibilities.
 - Exercise duty to be loyal and honest, to act in good faith and in the best interest of the organization.
 - Never allow own interests to conflict with the duty to the organization.
 - Act as stewards of public trust.
 - Exercise reasonable care in all decision making, without placing the organization under unnecessary risk.
 - Pursuant to UCA 11-58-8, adopt and monitor annual budgets and budget amendments.

IX. New Board Member Orientation

The Board Secretary will oversee new board member orientation, which will include an orientation meeting and board member responsibilities.

X. Term Limits

11-58-302 establishes term limits for voting board members.

Non-voting board member term limits will be 4 years. Each non-voting board member shall serve until a successor is duly appointed and qualified. Non-voting board members may serve multiple terms if duly appointed to serve by the board.

XI. Board Meetings

At minimum, board meetings will be held quarterly.

The board secretary is responsible for posting meeting details and attachments to the Public Notice Website as well as fulfilling obligations required by the Open & Public Meetings Act.

The board secretary will prepare draft agendas and submit them to the board chair. The board chair reviews and approves the agenda before each meeting, inviting other board members to propose additional agenda items, if desired. If the board chair is not available to review and approve the agenda prior to each meeting, the board vice chair will fulfill this responsibility.

XII. Compliance

The board verifies that the entity has complied with applicable state laws including certification and filing of annual budget (Utah Code 17B-1-614), notice of public meetings (Utah Code 52-4), notice of board member contact information (Utah Code 17B-1-303).

XIII. Training

Board members regularly receive the required training in open and public meetings, board governance and other matters applicable to the entity's mission. Training can be obtained online at <https://auditor.utah.gov/training/local-district/>, through in-house seminars, and at conferences such as those offered by the Utah Association of Special Districts.

The board secretary will ensure that required training is scheduled and documented.
